BLOOMINGTON, Ind. – Bloomington-born a cappella sensation Straight No Chaser (SNC) returns to the IU Auditorium stage Friday, December 15. Tickets are available now.

The group The New York Times calls “vibrantly warmblooded,” SNC has gained an international fan base and a reputation as an unforgettable live act, performing for sold-out crowds across the nation. From classic carols to pop hits, the Chasers bring something for everybody in their annual holiday show filled with their signature sound and charm.

Since their original formation at Indiana University in 1996, the group has pulled a cappella into the modern pop landscape with inventive arrangements of pop hits, medleys, and classic holiday songs. Their debut album, Holiday Spirits (2008), landed them at number 4 on Billboard’s Top Holiday Albums chart. Their most recent album, Six Pack Vol. 3, is the third in a series of compilations of modern pop songs and medleys.

“It’s a thrill to know that the wild success of Straight No Chaser all started right here in Bloomington,” Executive Director of IU Auditorium Doug Booher said. “Their highly-anticipated return every year is a celebration of a sensation 21 years in the making. Their set list may change year to year, but the energy and enjoyment unlike any other concert remains.”
