

INDIANA UNIVERSITY
AUDITORIUM

2025 ANNUAL REPORT

LETTER FROM THE DIRECTOR

The 2024–2025 season will be remembered as one of IU Auditorium’s finest. For the third year in a row, we set a record for annual box office sales across all ticketed performances in our building. We also achieved all-time highs for both eight-performance and two-performance Broadway engagements. None of this would have been possible without the extraordinary support of our patrons, donors, corporate partners, and Indiana University, as well as the tireless efforts of our staff, whose commitment ensures our community enjoys exceptional arts and entertainment experiences.

During the year, over 170,000 guests attended events in our facilities. Highlights included national tours such as Les Misérables, which established a new box office record for an eight-performance run. We also welcomed first-time performances of Hadestown, Dr. Seuss’ How the Grinch Stole Christmas, Dear Evan Hansen, and Clue. Hadestown thrilled audiences with two sold-out performances and record-breaking sales. We were also honored to host world-class ensembles and companies including the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra, Kodo, Jazz at Lincoln Center, and Dance Theatre of Harlem, which embarked on our most expansive residency to date, reaching four cities across Indiana.

Offstage, our education and engagement initiatives reached new heights with record participation and programming. In 2024–2025, we connected with nearly 8,800 IU and community members through more than 100 educational and engagement opportunities. Thanks to the generosity of donors and corporate partners, we distributed over 1,900 tickets—our largest total yet—through the Give the Magic program, benefiting local nonprofits, Title I schools, and IU students.

Since first opening our doors in 1941, IU Auditorium has remained proud to be among Indiana’s leading performing arts organizations. We continue to uphold the highest standards of quality while pursuing our mission to deliver meaningful experiences both on stage and throughout the community.

Once again, none of this success would have been possible without the ongoing support of our patrons, donors, corporate partners, and Indiana University. Thank you for helping make 2024–2025 a record-breaking year, and we invite you to reflect with us on the season in this annual report.

CAMPUS & COMMUNITY GATHERING PLACE

IU Students filled the Auditorium to hear Jesse Tyler Ferguson speak.

COACH CURT CIGNETTI SPEAKS TO STUDENTS AT IU AUDITORIUM

Union Board hosted an exclusive student-only event featuring Indiana head football coach Curt Cignetti in February. Cignetti, who was the consensus national coach of the year, spoke with students on the heels of a historic season for Indiana Football that saw the Hoosiers earn a spot in the College Football Playoff for the first time, while setting program records for wins (11) and Big Ten victories (8). The event included a moderated conversation and Q&A, and Coach Cignetti stayed to meet with any student who wanted to say hello.

LIVE WITH JAKE SHANE

In March, Live with Jake Shane took place at IU Auditorium in partnership with Live Nation. Shane, a viral digital entertainer, comedian, and podcast host, played to his biggest audience ever up to that date as IU students packed the theatre to spend an evening with the online star.

THEO VON

Last November, stand-up comedian, podcaster, television personality, host, and actor Theo Von appeared on our stage for the first time in front of a sold-out crowd. He's well known for his weekly podcast titled This Past Weekend, which has featured A-list celebrities, comedians, entertainers, political figures, and more.

JESSE TYLER FERGUSON

In September, Union Board, in collaboration with the IU LGBTQ+ Culture Center, hosted Modern Family star and Tony Award winner Jesse Tyler Ferguson as part of their annual "Speaking of Excellence" lecture series. During the moderated conversation, Ferguson spoke on his career journey, balancing his career with his family, and his role as an advocate as part of the LGBTQ+ community.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

Dance Theatre of Harlem captivated a house full of eighth graders during Auditorium Kids On Campus.

EDUCATION AND ENGAGEMENT REACHES ALL-TIME HIGH

This year's engagement goals were far surpassed. The audience engagement team hosted more than 100 engagement events throughout the season, including a statewide residency, pre-show lectures, artist Q&As, visits to senior living centers, and two iterations of the Auditorium Kids on Campus program for local middle and high school students. In all, these programs were attended by nearly 8,800 community members of all ages throughout the entire state of Indiana.

IU Auditorium was the last stop on Dance Theatre of Harlem's weeklong residency.

AUDITORIUM KIDS ON CAMPUS EXPANSION

For the first time ever, IU Auditorium hosted two Auditorium Kids on Campus events within the 2025–2026 season. As the Dance Theatre of Harlem's weeklong residency came to a close, the Auditorium Kids on Campus program welcomed nearly 1,000 local eighth graders to the theatre. Students experienced a dynamic lecture/demonstration by Dance Theatre of Harlem's artistic director and company members, blending performance with education to illuminate the power of dance and to show that ballet is for everyone.

In a separate event in March, over 200 local middle and high school music students were treated to a live performance by Jazz at Lincoln Center, offering a firsthand look at the artistry and legacy of jazz in America. These programs foster creativity, curiosity, and a lifelong appreciation for the performing arts.

GIVE THE MAGIC REACHES NEW HEIGHTS

Through the Give the Magic ticketing program, local nonprofit organizations and Title I schools received complimentary tickets to numerous IU Auditorium shows. This past season, the program flourished as it provided more than 1,900 tickets, including a record of 1,054 tickets alone for Dr. Seuss' How the Grinch Stole Christmas. IU Auditorium will continue to provide access to these incredible performances to community members and beyond through the Give the Magic program.

KIDS NIGHT ON BROADWAY

The two performances of Dr. Seuss' How the Grinch Stole Christmas were the backdrop for the annual Kids Night on Broadway event last November. The Grand Foyer turned into Whoville for the day as the young guests decorated ornaments, participated in Grinchmas games, shared what makes their hearts grow three times its size, and posed for many photos with the Grinch and his dog, Max. Over 1,000 young audience members attended this holiday "whobilation"!

DANCE THEATRE OF HARLEM WEEKLONG RESIDENCY

During the week of February 25–March 1, 2025, IU Auditorium partnered with Dance Theatre of Harlem for its most robust residency to date consisting of 18 events over five days in four Indiana cities impacting approximately 2,500 participants. The residency featured stops in Gary, Indianapolis, Greensburg, and Bloomington. The events included various dance workshops and movement classes, a daytime performance for local middle school students, an open rehearsal, a panel discussion, a public performance, and so much more.

CINCINNATI SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA RESIDENCY

From March 11 to 13, the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra led a three-day residency with students from the Jacobs School of Music. Over the three days, the musicians, conductors, and administrative staff of the orchestra led over 35 events including masterclasses, conducting seminars, arts administration panels, chamber music coaching, career discussions, and many more interactions. This residency impacted over 1,200 Indiana University students and provided incredible networking and performance opportunities.

CLUE FILM SCREENING AND Q&A AT IU CINEMA

In a first-time partnership with IU Cinema and continuing an ongoing collaboration with Union Board, IU Auditorium hosted a special screening of the cult classic Clue ahead of its staged adaptation on our stage. Following the film screening, the playwright, Sandy Rustin, shared her experience adapting the iconic movie for live theatre and answered questions from attendees. While on campus, Rustin also led a discussion with IU playwrighting students.

CELEBRATING THE ARTS WITH LOCAL SENIOR LIVING FACILITIES

Inspired by Michael Feinstein's tribute to Tony Bennett at IU Auditorium, a new outreach program brought live music into local senior living facilities. In collaboration with musicians from the Jacobs School of Music and local music therapist Valerie Jones, this "tour" made five stops featuring performances celebrating the timeless songs of Feinstein and Bennett.

Designed to spark joy, memory, and connection, the program extended the magic of the stage into the wider community by reaching audiences who may not otherwise experience the joy of live music on our campus.

INDIANA UNIVERSITY COMMUNITY

IU Auditorium is proud to serve as a dedicated and impactful partner to the Indiana University community. This commitment is evident through ongoing collaborations with IU organizations, where we help ensure successful events by providing experienced staff, expert ticketing solutions, and access to the venue to support the wide-ranging needs of IU students and employees. IU Auditorium strives to continue being a trusted campus resource.

Throughout the 2024–2025 academic year, the Auditorium again worked alongside Union Board to help present several major programs, including their annual Speaking of Excellence lecture series that featured Jesse Tyler Ferguson, the third annual Bloomington Ki Badtameezi, and a movie screening of Clue with a Q&A and masterclass by playwright Sandy Rustin. The Auditorium assisted multiple student organizations to present events such as Big Man on Campus, Chinese New Year Gala, and Raas Royalty to name a few. Additionally, IU Auditorium supported IU Arts and Humanities Council events like First Thursdays and the Granfalloon Festival with staff support.

Box office operations continued to support numerous events in our building and beyond, including ticketing the Little 500 races at Bill Armstrong Stadium. The box office team also continued to handle ticketing for ongoing campus collaborators, such as IU Cinema, the IU Department of Theatre, Drama, and Contemporary Dance, and Union Board, as well as continuing to provide services to include events at regional IU campuses.

13 CEREMONIES • 5,053 GRADUATES • 20,000+ GUESTS

COMMENCEMENT

In May, we again were honored to host 13 commencement recognition ceremonies for the class of 2025 for a number of schools and departments. Those events recognized more graduates and we welcomed more commencement guests through our doors than we ever have before for spring ceremonies including 5,053 graduates and over 20,000 guests.

IU AUDITORIUM STUDENT SCHOLARSHIP

Beyond providing students with invaluable, hands-on experience in venue management, IU Auditorium also supports their academic success through annual scholarships. The IU Auditorium Student Scholarship program was established in honor of Winston Shindell, the former Executive Director of both IU Auditorium and the Indiana Memorial Union. A passionate advocate for student development, Shindell fostered a professional setting where students could gain real-world skills by collaborating directly with Auditorium staff. The 2024–2025 scholarship recipients included:

- Anna Cecil
- Alexandra Marsee
- Breanna Reed
- Gaby Rondel
- Amelia Weier

IU Auditorium student employees celebrate at annual spring banquet.

IU AUDITORIUM +1 SCHOLARSHIP

Since its founding in 2014, the IU Auditorium Alumni Association (IUAAA) has served as a meaningful way to unite past student employees—ushers, student managers, box office staff, interns, graduate assistants, and more—who share a lasting connection to IU Auditorium. Through initiatives like the +1 Scholarship, the IUAAA honors the impact IU Auditorium had on their own student experience and gives back to future generations. Named in recognition of former Executive Director Doug Booher and his commitment to exceptional service through his “+1” philosophy, the scholarship celebrates students who go above and beyond in their roles. At the 2025 spring year-end banquet, Mary Higdon was recognized with this year’s +1 Scholarship for her outstanding dedication to creating a welcoming and memorable experience for all who walk through our doors.

MARGE ISON MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP ESTABLISHED

A new scholarship was established and presented to a deserving student employee at the annual spring banquet in May. The Marge Ison Memorial Scholarship was announced at the IU Auditorium Alumni Association’s bi-annual reunion in October, with the Ison family in attendance. It is named in memory of former longtime IU Auditorium Box Office Manager Marge Ison. The scholarship provides a $1,000 need-based scholarship for an IU Auditorium student employee that works in the box office and is awarded to students who have shown exceptional leadership and a strong desire to gain meaningful experience and personal growth through their involvement with the box office team at IU Auditorium. The first recipient of the Marge Ison Memorial Scholarship was Ella Wright.

ORIENTATION

In June and July, IU Auditorium greeted incoming IU students as they began their college journey at New Student Orientation. Partnering with the Office of First Year Experiences, the staff take great pride in being one of the first campus experiences for students and their families each year.

LITTLE 500

IU Auditorium once again was grateful to partner with the IU Student Foundation as the box office team handled ticketing operations for the annual Little 500 races at Bill Armstrong Stadium in April. This marked the second year that the box office has been a part of the world’s greatest college weekend. Nearly 16,000 tickets were sold for both races, as this year marked the 37th annual race for the women and 74th for the men.

STAFF ENRICHMENT

GRANDORF LEADERSHIP SUMMIT

Over 70 Indiana University Auditorium student employees and volunteers attended the annual Grandorf Leadership Summit in April. Thanks to the generosity of Jim and Joyce Grandorf, these students experienced an evening of insight and lessons that they will take with them into their careers and personal lives.

This year, Brian Richardson, Jr., Associate Vice Chancellor for Administration and Community, led the evening's keynote address, activities, and group discussion. He focused on the impact of snap judgements, the importance of taking the time to get to know a person's full self, and how an open and welcoming mindset can determine your decision making and approach to leadership. The students then discussed how they could apply this mindset in their roles at the Auditorium and in their future careers.

CONFERENCES ON CAMPUS

In an interdepartmental partnership with IU Conferences, IU Auditorium provides a space for major conferences on campus. During the summer months, the building and stage played hosts to the International Thespian Festival, Future Problem Solving, and Best Buddies International.

INTERNATIONAL THESPIAN FESTIVAL

For the fourth straight year, the International Thespian Festival took place on the IU Bloomington campus in June. This year, over 4,500 high school theatre students and teachers marked the largest number of participants ever hosted on IU's campus for this event. Several spaces throughout campus hosted live performances, workshops, and sessions including IU Auditorium, the Musical Arts Center, Simon Skjoldt Assembly Hall, and other campus venues and classrooms. IU Auditorium hosted productions of Hadestown, The Prince of Egypt, The Revolutionists, and Eurydice.

As an added bonus, the legendary music writers of The Prince of Egypt, Stephen Schwartz and Philip LaZebnik, were in attendance for that performance and took time to meet with the high school cast and crew of the production. Schwartz is also known for writing the music and lyrics to Wicked and Pippin among others. LaZebnik has also written for Disney's Mulan and Pocahontas to name a few. It was truly a memorable week for all involved.

FUTURE PROBLEM SOLVERS

In June, IU played host to the International Conference for Future Problem Solving where each year, K12 students around the world participate in a variety of challenges designed to empower curious youth to become changemakers. Problem solvers learn how to think, not what to think, and gain skills they need to succeed in work and life. Their programs help young people develop their own voices and give them the confidence to use them. This conference brings together over 2,000 champion problem solvers and supporters each year from around the world for its highest-level competition.

BEST BUDDIES INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

Each July, IU hosts the Best Buddies Leadership Conference, which unites Best Buddies leaders, volunteers, and community advocates from around the globe to imagine, create, lead, and empower the future of the disability rights and inclusion movement. Best Buddies International is a global volunteer movement to support people with intellectual and developmental disabilities through one-to-one friendships, employment, leadership development, inclusive living, and family-support programs. This transformative event is designed for rising Best Buddies student leaders and advisors, ambassadors, transition students, jobs participants, and parents who are passionate about fostering inclusion in their communities.

ANOTHER RECORD-SETTING YEAR

SEASON SALES RECORD FOR THIRD CONSECUTIVE YEAR

IU Auditorium set a year-long box office sales record for the third straight year for all ticketed events that took place on stage in 2024–2025. The new box office mark is now $3,566,565 in gross ticket sales.

LES MISÉRABLES SETS NEW MARK FOR EIGHT-PERFORMANCE RUN

One of the greatest musicals ever produced, Les Misérables, ran in September for eight performances. The engagement was an all-around success as it set a new IU Auditorium box office record for an eight-performance event with gross ticket sales totaling $873,756. This new mark bested The Book of Mormon's eight-performance run in the fall of 2019.

TWO SOLD-OUT PERFORMANCES OF HADESTOWN

Everyone boarded the train down to Hadestown, as the two performances of the Tony Award-winning musical were sold out in February. It marked the first time in IU Auditorium history that a Broadway show sold out completely over a two-performance run and set a new mark for sales in that category with $342,505 in gross ticket sales.

VENUE & EVENT MANAGEMENT

PRESIDENTS HALL

Presidents Hall, located inside the historic Franklin Hall, regularly serves as an event space for weddings, conferences, guest lectures, and other university events. Events in 2024–2025 included the Neal-Marshall Black Culture Center’s 55th Anniversary Celebration, the Luddy School’s Dean’s Dinner and Dance, and the annual IU Bloomington Staff Merit Awards. All in all, over 10,000 guests were welcomed into Presidents Hall last year, a near 20 percent increase from 2023–2024!

ESKENAZI MUSEUM OF ART

In 2024, the beautiful Sidney and Lois Eskenazi Museum of Art hosted the Mellencamp Art Exhibit Reception. Indiana University commemorated John Mellencamp’s invaluable contributions to music, art, and the university, with the unveiling of a sculpture, located on the north side of IU Auditorium, in his honor. This event was enjoyed by university guests to congratulate Mellencamp on his artistic talents and achievements.

CONRAD PREBYS AMPHITHEATER

The Conrad Prebys Amphitheater is tucked away between Bryan House and the Campus River, just steps from the front curb of IU Auditorium. The amphitheater acted as host to a wonderful Jacobs School of Music Jazz Ensemble concert in 2025. This venue is offered for educational use on behalf of Indiana University.

THANK YOU TO OUR DONORS

Celebrating the 2024–2025 Season at IU Auditorium

IU Auditorium extends its heartfelt thanks for your continued dedication to the performing arts and for your generous support throughout the 2024–2025 season. Your partnership brought transformative arts experiences, such as Broadway tour cast and crew interactions and residencies with top-tier artists, to life and sustains our mission to serve as a cultural cornerstone for Indiana University and broader community. Because of you, the past season was filled with moments of connection, inspiration, and joy for community members of all ages in Bloomington and beyond.

MEANINGFUL IMPACT

With your support last season, IU Auditorium proudly offered nearly 120 educational and engagement events, reaching nearly 9,000 students and community members across Indiana. From hands-on workshops to in-depth masterclasses with world-renowned artists, these programs built bridges between the stage and the community. Additionally, thanks to your support, over 72,000 patrons experienced the power of live performance in the historic venue—bringing Broadway, concerts, dance, comedy, and more to audiences of all ages.

A BRIGHT FUTURE

Your unwavering generosity made it possible to expand outreach efforts, fund student scholarships, and provide meaningful professional development opportunities for educators. These investments not only enrich lives today but help ensure the performing arts remain accessible and relevant for generations to come. Because of your belief in our work, IU Auditorium continues to serve as a hub for creativity, learning, and shared experiences—right at the heart of campus and community.

Thank you for helping us grow, dream, and inspire through the performing arts. We are deeply grateful for your partnership.

OUR GENEROUS DONORS

The generosity of our 2024–2025 donors and corporate partners made the multiple creative opportunities for students and community members of all ages outlined in this report possible.
